Through his intercession and his teaching we ask You to pour out Your blessings on all Your children who seek Your truth, so that all may come to know and love You in the one fold of the Redeemer, our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. THE DEEP END –

I have come that they may have life and have it abundantly

On this fourth Sunday of Easter we hear the beginning of the Good Shepherd discourse from John’s Gospel. Jesus portrays himself as a shepherd. And what is the duty of this shepherd? To protect his flock, to lead the flock, to know the flock. There is a beautiful line in this passage which reads: ‘the sheep follow him because they know his voice.’ What does it mean, to know the voice of Jesus? It is to be in deep relationship with Him, to know His voice above the ‘noise’ of the world around us. In order to know someone, we have to spend time with them, being aware of their presence, talking to them, listening, considering them friend and beloved. So, in today’s Gospel we are invited into a deep relationship with the Shepherd; invited to listen out for his voice, a voice that brings peace, not discomfort.

As I write this, our country is dealing with the Coronavirus outbreak. With social distancing, schools and colleges closed, it is a frightening time for many people. As Christ is shepherd to us, we are also called to be shepherds to others. There is a lot of hysteria online but there are also thoughtful suggestions for people, such as: take this time to write a letter to someone you care about; think of three things you love about someone and text it to them; check in on neighbours who might be vulnerable; each church undertake an audit of all the vulnerable people they know and share out the responsibility to phone them each day; practise the Christian discipline of sharing food; offer help and reassurance to others; don’t demonise anyone or any group. As followers of the Good Shepherd, may we live these suggestions, not just in times of crisis, but in all times so that all may ‘have life and have it abundantly.’
